The 16th Asian Logic Conference 2019

The Asian Logic Conference (ALC) is a major international event in mathematical logic. It features the latest scientific developments in the fields in mathematical logic and its applications, logic in computer science, and philosophical logic. The ALC series also aims to promote mathematical logic in the Asia-Pacific region and to bring logicians together both from within Asia and elsewhere to exchange information and ideas.

ALC2019 will host the 14th International Conference on Computability, Complexity and Randomness as a satellite event that will take place on June 23-25, 2019.

PROGRAMME COMMITTEE:

Chair

Sergey S. Goncharov
Sobolev Institute of Mathematics, Russia

Members:

Bektur Baizhanov
Institute of Mathematics, Kazakhstan

Jörg Brendle
Kobe University, Japan

Koichiro Ikeda
Hosei University, Japan

Bakhadyr Khoussainov
University of Auckland, New Zealand

Andrey Morozov
Sobolev Institute of Mathematics, Russia

Hiroakira Ono
Japan Advanced Institute of Science and Technology, Japan

Wei Wang
Sun Yat-sen University, China

Guohua Wu
Nanyang Technological University, Singapore

Yue Yang
National University of Singapore, Singapore

Liang Yu
Nanjing University, China

PLENARY SPEAKERS:

Serikzhan Badaev
Al-Farabi Kazakh National University, Kazakhstan

Nikolay Bazhenov
Sobolev Institute of Mathematics, Russia

Qi Feng
Chinese Academy of Sciences, China

Sakae Fuchino
Kobe University, Japan

Takayuki Kihara
Nagoya University, Japan

Byunghan Kim
Yonsei University, Korea

Beibut Kulpeshov
IIT University, Kazakhstan

Dietrich Kuske
Technische Universität Ilmenau, Germany

Dugald Macpherson
University of Leeds, UK

Ahti-Veikko Pietarinen
Nazarbayev University, Kazakhstan

Zhiwei Sun
Nanjing University, China

Toshimichi Usuba
Waseda University, Japan

SPECIAL SESSION SPEAKERS:

Computability theory:

Andrey Frolov
Kazan Federal University, Russia

Nurlan Kogabaev

Lu Liu
Central South University, China

Model theory:

Sergey Sudoplatov

Viktor Verbovskiy
KBTU, Kazakhstan

Ningyuan Yao
Fudan University, China

Set theory:

Osvaldo Guzman
University of Toronto, Canada

JiaLiang He
Sichuan University, China

Daisuke Ikegami
Shibaura Institute of Technology, Japan

Logic in Computer Science:

Marcin Jurdzinski
University of Warwick, UK

Jiamou Liu
The University of Auckland, New Zealand

Toru Takisaka
Kyoto University, Japan

Philosophical Logic:

Minghui Ma

The Asian Logic Conference (ALC) is a major international event in mathematical logic. It features the latest scientific developments in the fields in mathematical logic and its applications, logic in computer science, and philosophical logic. The ALC series also aims to promote mathematical logic in the Asia-Pacific region and to bring logicians together both from within Asia and elsewhere to exchange information and ideas.

From 1981 to 2008, the Asian Logic Conference has been held triennially and rotated among countries in the Asia-Pacific region. The previous meetings took place in Singapore (1981), Bangkok (1984), Beijing (1987), Tokyo (1990), Singapore (1993), Beijing (1996), Hsi-Tou (1999), Chongqing (2002), Novosibirsk (2005), and Kobe (2008). In 2008, the East Asian and Australasian Committees of the Association for Symbolic Logic decided to shorten the three-year cycle to two. The new two-year cycle began with the meeting in Singapore (2009), and subsequent meetings have been held in Wellington (2011), Guangzhou (2013), Mumbai (2015), Daejeon (2017).

Some of the previous meetings' websites can be found HERE.

The conference will be co-located with the 14th International Conference on Computability and Randomness (CCR 2019).

Dear Dr. Michael Stephen Fiske,
On behalf of the ALC2019 Program Committee, it is my pleasure to inform you that your abstract has been accepted as a contributed talk at ALC2019.

Please note that the registration for the conference is open:

<http://www.alc2019.kz/registration>

In case you have not yet paid the conference fee, you can still benefit from the early bird reduction.

After the conference fee is paid the abstract will be finally edited and displayed on <http://www.alc2019.kz>.

Thank you very much for your contribution to the conference. We are looking forward to meeting you in Nur-Sultan.
